The Queer Eye host and activist's journey is proof that anyone can make a career out of their passions.

Never has there been a better excuse to give your neglected make-up bag a spring clean – just in time for summer – than the year we’ve just had. For a ready-made glow, look no further than Beauty Pie’s exciting new “make-up essentials” collaboration with one of Hollywood’s most in-demand make-up artists, Pati Dubroff, which launches today. It is set to be a sell-out.

Director, Producer, Writer

A short documentary discussing the technical and creative performance of the new Atlas Orion Silver Edition anamorphic lenses.

Holben works with cinematographer Kaitly Williams to put a new series of anamorphic lenses to the test and discuss their character and abilities. This also included creating the short film On the Orion.

We Build For You

At Scott Communities, we build homes for the life you live. Since 1994, we continue to create neighborhoods across Arizona that marry quality with affordability—houses crafted specifically for the milestones you'll make. Whether you're a first-time buyer or trying to get ahead, we build with your personality, preferences and life stage in mind. We build with a passion for detail and precision, ensuring your new life is the platform for your future. We build for the excitement you'll catch when it's time for the unforgettable milestones, joyfully everyday and everything in between. At Scott Communities, we build for you.

I've spent the last four years working with a fine arts degree under my own LLC with production companies, ad agencies, and brands to create high-quality, timeless images. Capturing everything from stills for motion pictures, to product photography for high end merchandise, I strive to provide clients with versatile, distinct photos they can be confident in.
